Under the aegis of: Indian Association of Gastrointestinal Endo Surgeons

Venue: Auditorium, Nanavati Super Speciality Hospital, Mumbai

Dear Surgeons,

Welcome to FIAGES 2019 at Nanavati Super Speciality Hospital, Mumbai. FIAGES is a prestigious fellowship that has been offered by IAGES since 2007. Through this training program, we aim to help young surgeons start a laparoscopic surgical practice. This course covers all the steps of Basic and Advanced Laparoscopic Surgery, including endosuturing and knotting, as well as the use of high-end energy sources and GI staplers.

As students of surgery, not only was it our dream to perform laparoscopic surgery, but also to be able to handle complications of any kind. Every surgeon faces complications and knowing how to solve them is what makes a great surgeon.

With this fellowship course, we hope to provide a building block for the advancement of laparoscopic surgeries in India. As for those who have already been practising laparoscopic surgery for over 10 years, we wish to felicitate and acknowledge their contribution to the field by presenting them with an Honorary FIAGES.

We hope you enjoy this detailed program, and that it proves to be a great educational experience for all.
